The property

Highfield is a splendid part stone-clad family home offering a total of 2,694 sq. ft of light-filled flexible accommodation arranged over a single floor and with the benefit of planning permission for the addition of two bedrooms and two bathrooms on a first-floor extension.

Configured to offer both elegance and practicality for modern living and entertaining, the property features wooden flooring throughout the reception areas. The accommodation flows from a welcoming reception hall with a cloakroom/ shower room and includes a spacious 25ft sitting room with a contemporary Stovax Cassette wood burner inset fire and a striking front-aspect vaulted bay with full-height glazing. The adjacent front aspect study benefits from useful fitted storage, both rooms enjoying access to an extensive open plan kitchen/dining/family room.

The sleek kitchen has a range of wall and base units providing plenty of storage and includes a large central island with breakfast bar, complementary work surfaces and splashbacks. There are a number of modern integrated Neff and Franke appliances to include a double oven, microwave, coffee machine, fridge, fridge-freezer and wine chiller. There is an inter-connecting fitted utility room for additional appliances that further leads to the terrace and to the integral double garage.

The remaining space, configurable to the purchasers' own requirements, has a magnificent, vaulted ceiling with feature glazing and bi-fold doors to the rear terrace. There is an impressive modern freestanding Scan 85 wood burning stove with feature slate tiled back wall with ample space for a large dining table and additional seating area.

The accommodation is completed by a bedroom wing comprising a generous rear-aspect principal bedroom with fitted storage and a stylish en suite bathroom featuring twin sinks, a bath, and a separate walk-in shower enclosure. A second large double of similar proportions also benefits from fitted storage and an en suite shower room with twin sinks. The remaining third bedroom is also a double.

Location

Located in the serene North Yorkshire countryside, Copgrove village has a strong community spirit, with regular events and activities taking place throughout the year. With its charming village ambiance and picturesque rural vistas, it is ideal for those seeking a peaceful retreat. A key attraction is the historic St. Michael and All Angels Church, dating back to the 12th century as well as offering several scenic walking routes, including the well-loved Nidderdale Way, which showcases some of the region's most breathtaking landscapes.

The nearby village of Burton Leonard offers a larger range of amenities to include a pub, a post office, general store, primary school and a village hall.

The historic spa town of Harrogate and market town of Knaresborough both offer excellent shopping, leisure and cultural facilities, plus several supermarkets, and a choice of superb schools – both state and independent.

The area is well connected by road, with the A1(M) just 4 miles from the property, offering easy access to the north and south, while Harrogate mainline station offers direct services to London Kings Cross in three hours.

Outside

The property is approached through twin stone pillars with double electric iron gates (currently disconnected), over a tarmac driveway which provides a wealth of parking and access to the integral double garage. To the side of the property is hardstanding parking for additional vehicles and a paved front terrace area, ideal for entertaining. Set behind an area of level lawn, with a feature water fountain and screened by mature hedging for privacy, the property has plenty of kerb appeal.

The well-maintained garden to the rear is laid mainly to level lawn and features a large wraparound paved terrace accessible from the dining and utility rooms, also ideal for entertaining and al fresco dining. The whole overlooks eight acres of open fields purchased by Copgrove residents to continue to provide stunning views.
