The property

3 Dixwell Road is a substantial period property, extending to over 4,500 sq ft, with a collection of large, elegant rooms arranged over three light-filled floors. The house has been comprehensively restored by the current vendors who have enhanced and retained the period character, whilst incorporating stylish, relaxed spaces.

Set in grounds of half an acre, with high levels of privacy, plentiful sash and bay windows connect the house to its beautiful surroundings, imbuing a great sense of calm and a tranquillity befitting of a more rural location. The sea, promenade, town and train station (with High Speed service to London St Pancras) are all within easy reach.

The grand arched entrance doorway opens to an airy reception hall with a turned stairway and cloakroom. The hallway flows into an abundance of adaptable, high-ceilinged and sash windowed rooms with an assortment of charming feature fireplaces. The 32 ft drawing room is exceptional, having bespoke built-in cabinets and an impressive curved bay overlooking the gardens; alongside is the sitting room opening to the westerly aspect. Further on there is a TV room with fitted furniture, and a peaceful home office.

The sociable kitchen and dining room occupies a 19 ft space with a walk-in bay and door to the rear terrace. The kitchen features a range of stylish modern cabinetry, work surfaces and appliances, including a range stove. The dining area has ample space for a large table. Completing the ground floor is a scullery, utility, boiler room and a useful shower room. The rear hall leads through to the attached garage.

Along with a study/hobby room and a store room, the first floor is home to four well-proportioned and bright bedrooms with fine features, including the bay-windowed principal with its adjoining dressing room. There is a family bathroom with a freestanding rolltop bath and separate cloakroom.

On the second floor there is an additional store room and three further bedrooms, well served by an additional modern shower room and family bathroom.

Outside

The property sits in a well-established, part walled private plot within its sought-after postcode, surrounded by tall trees, shrubs and neatly trimmed dividing hedges. A driveway leads to the attached garage, with a pathway flanked by level lawn leading to the entrance.

The rear garden enjoys a westerly aspect and comprises further expanses of level formal lawn with a pretty paved terrace for dining, an ornamental pond and a variety of colourful planting schemes.
