The property

Delamere House is an impressive, un-listed family house built in the Art Deco period. It occupies a wonderful, slightly elevated position in a prime residential road on the edge of the village and has views of the beautiful surrounding countryside. The house has a fantastic light and open living space with generous sized reception rooms all centred around the reception hall creating an ideal entertaining space. The kitchen/dining room links through to the large family room and this combines to make a fabulous family living space ideal for today's modern lifestyle. The kitchen is fitted with painted wooden cabinets and an electric Aga, and there is a charming fireplace with woodburning stove at the dining room end. The drawing room has an attractive open fireplace and large windows overlooking the garden. There is also a generous sized study with an Art Deco style, part-glazed wall. Upstairs a wide landing area is filled with natural light, off which there are 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, all good-sized and with a charming outlook across the gardens to the view beyond. In the family bathroom there is a sauna, currently used for storage but which could be reinstated if required. A door from the landing opens onto a balcony that runs along the front of the house, enjoying the stunning views. A spiral staircase leads up to a wonderful additional living space, currently used as additional bedroom accommodation.

Outside

The house is approached from the lane across a sweeping gravel drive. The beautiful gardens surround the house with a formal lawn at the front and a more intimate garden area to the rear and side of the house. The gardens are mainly laid to lawn interspersed with mature trees, hedges and shrubs. There is a timber framed car port with space for two cars, and plenty of additional parking. There are also two very useful garden stores, originally stables. Folly Road is a no-through-road and a short distance beyond Delamere House the lane ends and becomes the Ridgeway trail which offers miles of fabulous open space and stunning walking and riding countryside.
