The property

Upon entering the property, the light reception hallway leads to the spacious living room, separate dining room, study, family room and kitchen breakfast room. The kitchen is comprehensively fitted with a range of base and eye level units, integrated appliances, and centre work island. From here, access is also provided to the utility room and large conservatory.

On the first floor there are five good sized bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from an ensuite bathroom. There are two further bathroom / shower rooms.

Outside

Outside, the property offers private parking. The rear garden offers a level lawn surrounded by planted borders and a large patio area ideal for al fresco dining and entertaining.

Location

Gerrards Cross offers a wide range of shopping facilities, including Waitrose and Tesco, as well as a host of independent stores and a good number of varied restaurants, hotels, public houses, an Everyman cinema and community library.

Ideal for the commuter, the motorway network can be accessed at Junction 1 M40 (Denham), linking to the M25, M1, M4 and Heathrow/Gatwick airports, while Gerrards Cross station boasts a speedy Chiltern Rail link to London Marylebone.

South Buckinghamshire is renowned for its excellent range of primary, secondary and grammar schooling, together with a good selection of noted independent schools.
