The property

The accommodation flows from a welcoming reception hall with fitted window seating, through to the property's four ground floor reception rooms. They comprise a well-appointed sitting room with original oak panelling and a fireplace fitted with a woodburner and an interconnecting reception room also accessible from the hall which could be used as a dining room or snug. There is also a generous drawing room with a feature fireplace and a double aspect with French doors that open onto the rear terrace. Sliding doors connect the drawing room to a study which also has French doors onto the terrace. A door from the study opens to the kitchen/breakfast room which offers a range of wall and base units, a large central island, complementary worktops, a four-oven Aga, modern integrated appliances and space for a large family dining table. An adjoining fitted utility provides further space for household storage and appliances while there is also a cloakroom. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a double bedroom with fitted storage, an en suite shower room and full-height glazing incorporating French doors to the garden. An elegant staircase rises from the reception hall to first floor accommodation which comprises three well-appointed double bedrooms. The generous principal bedroom benefits from an adjoining fitted dressing room and an en suite bathroom with bath and separate shower, while the two further bedrooms are serviced by en suite shower rooms. A separate staircase rises from the rear hall to the self-contained annexe, also accessible from the main landing, which provides an open plan living area and kitchen and one bedroom with en suite bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower. There is also a cloakroom on the ground floor. The annexe offers flexible accommodation and excellent opportunities for multi-generational living or income potential. The annexe could also be incorporated back into the main accommodation to create a large family home.

Outside

Set against a backdrop of mature trees offering a private oasis and having plenty of kerb appeal, the property is approached over a gravelled driveway providing private parking and giving access to a detached garage. The garden features numerous peaceful seating areas, a garden pond attracting a variety of wildlife and fauna, an area of light woodland, a detached shed (in need of restoring) and a raised paved terrace providing ideal space for entertaining and al fresco dining.
