The property

The Shieling is a handsome detached period property with more than 3,000 square feet of comfortable, flexible accommodation arranged across three floors. The property features attractive elevations of red brick and tile, and has a layout that offers the possibility for use as two separate dwellings, or as one spacious family home.

There are two main reception rooms in the larger section of the property, forming the primary living and entertaining areas for the main house. These include the well-proportioned, dual aspect sitting room with fireplace and sliding glass doors opening to the rear garden.

There is also a formal dining room with exposed wide oak floorboards and a cast-iron open fireplace. The main house also has a well-equipped kitchen with fitted units as well as an integrated oven, gas hob and extractor hood.

Adjoining the kitchen is a second dining room, which could form part of the main home or the annexe, and in turn leads to the second kitchen with fitted units, integrated oven and hob and space for all the necessary appliances.

Off the kitchen there is a hallway leading to two ground-floor bedrooms and a family bathroom, with one of the bedrooms ideal for use as an office or, alternatively, a sitting room in an annexe layout.

The main accommodation continues to the first and second floors, across which there are five double bedrooms, one currently used as a large dressing room with built-in storage. The first floor also offers two family bathrooms, one of which has a separate W.C.

Outside

The property is set some way back from the road along a singletrack driveway, which leads to a gravel parking area and detached garage, providing plenty of parking space for several vehicles. The gardens surrounding the house have rolling lawns and a wealth of established shrubs and flowering perennials, as well as shady wooded areas.

There is a terrace area at the back of the house ideal for outside entertaining, with a gazebo providing shaded seating. An area of timber decking provides further space in which to relax and enjoy the peaceful surroundings, with the gardens enclosed by woodland, adding to the sense of privacy and seclusion.

Location

The neighbouring villages of Hindhead and Grayshott are located on the Surrey/Hampshire border, surrounded by stunning countryside, including the National Trust sites of Ludshott Common and the Devil's Punch Bowl. Hindhead and Grayshott offer plenty of local amenities, including a choice of pubs, restaurants, shops and small supermarkets, while the popular town of Haslemere town centre is just two miles away with its choice of shopping, restaurants, cafés and large supermarkets.

For leisure, Hindhead Golf Club is close-at-hand, while the area is excellent for schooling options. Transport links to and from the area are superb, with the A3 just a mile away and mainline rail services available in Haslemere (55 minutes to London Waterloo).
