The property

115 Keymer Road is an attractive mid-terrace home constructed of rendered and white-painted brick and offering more than 1,100 sq ft of light-filled flexible accommodation arranged over three floors. Configured to provide a practical and cohesive family and entertaining space featuring elegant neutral décor and a wealth of wood effect laminate flooring throughout, the property offers predominantly open plan ground floor accommodation, creating an immediate feeling of space. The front door opens directly into a generous reception room with a front aspect bay window providing plenty of natural light. The reception room opens into a rear aspect kitchen/breakfast room with a range of contemporary wall and base units, complementary work surfaces, modern integrated appliances and space for a good-sized table. The kitchen/breakfast room opens in turn to a fitted utility room with a door to the cloakroom and a further door to the rear garden.

Stairs from the kitchen/breakfast room descend to the lower ground floor, which houses the property's spacious principal bedroom. It, too, has a front aspect bay window admitting a wealth of natural light, together with a central freestanding exposed brick chimney breast with an open fireplace and feature hammered rose gold metal mantel. The property's two remaining double bedrooms, one also benefitting from a front aspect bay window, can be found on the first floor, together with a part-tiled family bathroom with a bath with electric shower over.

Outside

Set behind low-level stone walling, the property is approached from the pavement over steps rising to the front door, flanked by a low-maintenance gravelled front garden.

Accessible from the utility room, the enclosed garden to the rear is of a good size and is laid mainly to level lawn and backs onto a neighbouring feature topiary wall. Offering the prospective purchaser the opportunity to undertake some landscaping to create a more personalised space, it features a garden store together with a block-paved terrace, ideal for entertaining and al fresco dining.
