An imposing period residence set within landscaped gardens, complete with a detached garden house

Lambourne House is a substantial period property offering versatile living space, seamlessly combining architectural heritage with contemporary luxury. Throughout, fine character features are exhibited, including exquisite wood-panelled walls, ornate ceiling roses, fireplaces, and traditional parquet flooring.

The ground floor is defined by its high ceilings, scale and elegance, and at the heart is a grand triple-aspect drawing room, complete with rich oak panelling, a statement brick fireplace, and three sets of French doors that open onto the gardens. The property's charm continues into the formal dining room that is designed for sophisticated entertaining, while the library provides a retreat for reading, home working or quite simply, relaxation. A separate light-filled sitting room provides additional reception space and adjacent lies the kitchen and breakfast room, appointed with a four-oven Aga, integrated appliances (including a Miele oven, a fridge, freezer, and dishwasher), a walk-in pantry, and a separate butler's pantry. The four reception rooms offer versatility, to suit a family's growing needs, and a dedicated wine cellar provides an exceptional feature for connoisseurs. This floor further comprises a guest cloakroom.

On the first floor, five well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged around a striking landing with decorative wall panelling and ceiling. The principal suite stands out, with a wide bay window overlooking the grounds, a generous walk-in wardrobe, and a luxurious en suite bathroom complete with twin vanity basins, a freestanding claw-foot bath, a walk-in shower, and generous built-in wardrobe space. A second bedroom benefits from an en suite Jack and Jill bathroom, while the remaining three are served by a modern family bathroom.

To the front, the property features a practical layout highlighted by an expansive driveway with a distinct in-and-out dual gated entrance configuration. Securely enclosed by electric gates, it provides extensive parking with access to a detached garage.
