A fabulous contemporary village house with stunning interiors in a popular village in the Pewsey Vale

Cobbetts Way is a contemporary family house blending clean architectural lines, open living spaces and modern materials to create a stylish yet practical family house.

The exterior features a mix of brick and wood cladding, with dark painted windows, creating a sleek, modern appearance. Large floor to ceiling windows allow natural light to flood the interiors and create a strong connection between indoor and outdoor spaces.

The house centres around a fantastic open plan living area that combines kitchen, dining and living spaces into one bright and spacious environment. The kitchen includes a large central island, minimalist cabinetry, smart worktops and integrated appliances, and links seamlessly with the garden via large glazed doors. There is also a fantastic sitting room with full height windows and two sets of doors filling the room with natural light and providing a wonderful outlook. The four bedrooms are designed for comfort and flexibility. The main bedroom is situated on the ground floor and has French doors to the garden and adjoins a large bathroom. Upstairs there are three further good sized bedrooms, and a family bathroom with bath and shower.

On the lower ground floor there is a further reception room currently used as a family room, which would also be ideal as a home office or gym. Adjoining this room is a utility room and store room.

The house is approached from the village lane via a gravelled parking area and steps lead up to the front door. The garden lies mainly to the rear of the property where there is an area of lawn edged with mixed flower border, mature shrubs and trees. A wide terrace wraps around the house on three sides creating different areas for enjoying the afternoon and evening sunshine and is ideal for outside entertaining.
