The Property

North Cerney Manor is a fantastic Grade II listed property located in unspoilt rolling Cotswold countryside, with magnificent principal rooms of generous proportions and high ceilings. The house blends historic charm with modern comfort and is entered through an entrance hallway leading into an inviting and well-equipped kitchen/ breakfast room, pantry, and utility room. These lead into a billiards room with sash windows, and a large dining room. Beyond that is the spacious and light drawing room with a fine traditional fireplace.

A wine cellar is accessed from a plant room to the rear of the property. A well sized hall and study lead to a beautiful wooden carpeted staircase that proceeds to the first floor.

There are 5 first floor bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from a large ensuite bathroom and two spacious dressing rooms with large, fitted wardrobes. An extensive home office/bedroom and a further two bathrooms are also on the first floor. The second floor has two more bedrooms, a bathroom, an attic storeroom, and an additional bed/games room.

Outside

North Cerney Manor provides easy access to Cirencester and Cheltenham. The house is set within well-kept gardens on all sides of the property offering plentiful space for enjoyment and recreation, with patio doors from the drawing room opening onto a BBQ terrace for outdoor seating and entertainment. The dining room and kitchen/breakfast room also have patio doors opening onto the more formal western terraced garden. To the rear of the property is a private and secluded walled garden, fruit trees, a potting shed, walled vegetable garden, and former apple store.

The impressive traditional Cotswold stone courtyard comprises an open fronted 5 bay car port, secure double garage and stores, studio office space, gym, and general storage. It also offers 9 well sized equestrian stables, feed room, and secure tack room.

A further 5 stables and tack room are also available. The main property complex extends to 4.5 acres, which includes a 2.5-acre paddock.

An extra 19.54 acres of grazing is available if required by separate negotiation. North Cerney Manor may be available without the land and courtyard buildings.

Location

North Cerney is a charming Cotswold village found in the Churn Valley surrounded by farmland and mature woodland. The village offers a well renowned public house (The Bathurst Arms), a C of E primary school, church and village hall.

The market town of Cirencester, known as the Capital of the Cotswolds, is approximately 4 miles from the property. It is a thriving town with plentiful amenities and leisure opportunities with various shops, restaurants, cafés, several public houses, a weekly market and multiple supermarkets.

Cirencester has several schools, a sixth form college and is home to the Royal Agricultural University.

Stroud, Gloucester and Cheltenham are all within easy reach. Independent schools within daily commuting distance include Rendcomb College, Cheltenham College, Cheltenham Ladies College, Dean Close and The Kings School Gloucester whilst there are well regarded Grammar schools in Stroud Gloucester and Cheltenham.

Directions
