The property

The White House is an attractive four bedroom family home offering flexible living accommodation and, with its attached two bedroom holiday cottages and separate one bedroom annexe, offers the prospective purchaser the opportunity to continue its use as a thriving holiday let business or for use as an extended multi-generational family home.

The property has undergone significant restoration and renovation under the current owners, and is designed to provide an ideal family home while maximizing the picturesque views. It combines modern amenities with features such as solid oak flooring and staircase, quarry-tiled flooring, exposed beams, and original fireplaces.

The accommodation in the main house flows from a welcoming split-level reception hall with useful storage areas and a fitted utility room. It comprises a spacious drawing room with exposed beams, wooden flooring, and a feature fireplace with a multifuel burner. There is also a sitting room with quarry-tiled flooring and a freestanding woodburning stove, as well as a generous slate-floored kitchen/breakfast room with a range of wall and base units, complementary granite worktops, a Rayburn stove, a Belfast sink, modern integrated appliances, and a door leading to a side porch and boiler room.

On the first floor the property offers a principal bedroom with vaulted ceiling with exposed A frame beams, feature arched window, wooden flooring and an en suite shower room (not completed, but connections are in place), three further double bedrooms - one with en suite shower room, and a family bathroom with bath and separate shower.

Attached to the main house are two single-storey holiday cottages, Meadow View and Alyn View, both with open plan kitchen/dining/living areas with freestanding woodburners and French doors to private terraces, two double bedrooms and modern fully-tiled shower rooms. The layout could be reconfigured to provide additional accommodation for the main dwelling if so required.

Outside

The property is approached off Pant Du Road via an unnamed country road, leading to a tarmac forecourt providing private parking for multiple vehicles and giving access to a detached outbuilding comprising a double garage with electric doors and a utility room, with external stairs rising to a first floor annexe "Woodland View" with an open plan kitchen/dining/reception room and French doors to a private balcony, a double bedroom and a bathroom with separate shower.

The generous garden is laid mainly to lawn bordered by mature hedging and features generous paved terraces off the main house and two holiday lets, affording breathtaking views over the stunning surrounding countryside.

Location

The property sits around ten miles from the England/Wales border in the Clwydian Range & Dee Valley National Park, near to Eryrys village which has a community centre, pub and mobile Post Office. Eryrys and Nercwys villages are surrounded by miles of walking, cycling and riding routes. Independent and national shopping, a Tesco superstore and services including a community hospital can be found in Mold. Buckley town centre offers churches, supermarkets, a shopping precinct, medical centre, library, primary and secondary schooling, pubs, a leisure centre and golf club. More extensive amenities can be found in Flint, Wrexham and Chester.

Communications links are excellent: buses link Nercwys to Mold, the A55 links to North Wales, Chester and key regional centres in both Wales and England via the M56 (Manchester) and M53 (Liverpool) and Buckley and Penyffordd stations offer regular services to London.

The area offers a good selection of state primary and secondary schooling together with independent schools including Ruthin, Myddelton College. Bryn Tirion Hall and The King's and Queen's Schools further afield in Chester.
