An immaculately presented and beautifully organised three-bedroom freehold mews house with a spectacular decked roof and integral garage in this highly desirable location

Description

This exceptional house extends to approximately 2,288 sq ft and was recently completely refurbished by the current owners. The accommodation is well planned, efficient and generous, with an excellent sense of flow throughout. The house is centred around a contemporary glass staircase set within a triple-height void, drawing in impressive natural light – a rare and highly desirable quality in a mews house.

There is a superb first-floor drawing room with French doors opening onto a Juliette balcony, a generous kitchen/dining room, three well-proportioned bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are en suite. A stunning, unusually large decked roof is approached by a proper staircase and provides a wonderful private outdoor space. The excellent lower-ground floor, measuring 30'3 x 8'11, offers flexible use and is currently arranged as an office, gym and laundry. The integral garage is particularly spacious, with an impressive ceiling height of over 3m, and measures 18'8 x 8'10.

Pavilion Road

Location

Pavilion Road is one of the most sought-after addresses on the Chelsea/Knightsbridge border. It is located between Sloane Street, Pont Street and Cadogan Square, and is moments from Sloane Square and Harrods. The street is made up of former 19th-century stables, now converted into attractive mews houses, while the southern end is pedestrianised, creating a delightful destination address with cafés and artisan food shops. The closest underground stations are Sloane Square, 0.4 miles away, for the District and Circle lines, and Knightsbridge, 0.4 miles away, for the Piccadilly line.
