The property

Generous proportions, an abundance of natural light and architectural creativity make this a truly distinctive Chelsea residence. Measuring over 1,000 square feet, the accommodation centres around a bright and spacious south-west facing reception room, benefitting from high ceilings, large windows and an additional mezzanine level. The sunken kitchen is both functional and full of character, offering a unique focal point within the home. There are two well-proportioned bedrooms, an en-suite bathroom and an additional shower room.

Location

Set within a prominent corner building on Redcliffe Square, the property is conveniently located for Earl's Court tube station (District & Piccadilly Line), the boutique shops, cafes and restaurants found on the Fulham Road and the Old Brompton Road, and the greenery of Redcliffe Square.
