4 bedrooms | 2 reception rooms
3 bathrooms | Garden | Roof terrace

Guide price £2,550,000

A beautifully renovated four-bedroom house with a garden and two wonderful terraces in Chelsea.

An exquisite four-bedroom family house, completely rebuilt by its current owner to offer stylish, contemporary interiors and thoughtfully arranged living space.

The ground floor is designed for both everyday family life and entertaining. An informal sitting room opens into the dining room, which leads through to a spacious family kitchen and a beautifully manicured rear garden.

On the first floor, a formal reception room is complemented by a bedroom or study and a shower room. The second floor is dedicated to the principal suite, with a dressing room, a luxurious en-suite bathroom and direct access to a generous roof terrace. Two further double bedrooms occupy the third floor and share a shower room. One of the bedrooms opens onto the second roof terrace, completing the house's exceptional range of indoor and outdoor spaces.

Location

Stadium Street is situated just south of King's Road with its wonderful array of shops, bars and restaurants. It is also conveniently located close to the open spaces of Battersea Park which can be found just across the River Thames. Imperial Wharf railway station is nearby with excellent services provided by London Overground and local bus links offer transport into central London. The Thames Clipper is also a pleasant and popular commute into the City (approximately 35 minutes).
