The property

The Hollies is a magnificent, detached period mansion that has been divided into five luxury apartments.

Configured to offer both elegance and practicality for modern living and entertaining, Apartment E is a fantastic a duplex apartment located on the ground and lower ground floor. It is the largest of the apartments and incorporates some of the mansion's former grand reception rooms including the former ballroom and retains many original period features to include high ceilings, ornate cornicing, plasterwork and wooden flooring throughout the majority.

The main reception room is an impressive 29ft living room, with a dual aspect and tall sash windows that welcome plenty of natural light, it is the perfect family and entertaining space. A magnificent inner hall with glass roof, ornate carved timber detailing and panelled walls could be used as an additional reception room such as a formal dining hall, and leads you to two of the bedrooms. Both bedrooms are of similar proportion and includes the principal bedroom with French doors that open out to the gardens and the second bedroom/sitting room with a grand fireplace.

There is a modern house bathroom with rain shower over the bath and a separate WC with utility. On the westerly side of the property another generous hallway has French doors and a single door proving access to the apartment and leads to a guest bedroom with fitted storage and contemporary en suite shower room.

The lower level is accessed via stairs from the living room and has a generous open-plan kitchen and dining area with a modern fitted wall and base units providing plenty of storage, a central island with breakfast bar and integrated appliances. The dining area has ample space for a good-sized table and chairs. Bi-fold doors flood the space with natural light and leads out to a patio area and to the gardens. Completing the lower ground is a useful walk-in pantry and a home gym/office.

Outside

Set in a peaceful and sought-after north Leeds setting, the apartment is set in beautiful communal gardens, which are surrounded by woodland and back onto the open parkland of The Hollies. There is plenty of parking in front of the house, while at the side and rear there are areas of terracing with rolling lawns beyond.

Location

The property is set in the highly desirable Leeds community of Far Headingley, to the north of the city centre and within moments of the beautiful surrounding Yorkshire countryside. Headingley provides various day-to-day amenities, including local shops, cafés, restaurants and a supermarket. The magical 30 acres of woodland and waterway is a unique green space for Leeds and is just moments away in The Hollies. Featuring six new refurbished hard tennis courts and a rare plant collection in the botanical garden and an extensive wildlife community, it is thought to have been the inspiration for J.R.R. Tolkien's middle earth.
