The property

Landgate House is situated in a spectacular location in the village of Blockley with far reaching panoramic views over the village and the farmland beyond. Built of stone in the early noughties, the property is a contemporary home which has recently been run as a substantial holiday let. The well-proportioned accommodation is arranged over three floors. On the ground floor there is an entrance hall, vaulted sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, en-suite bedroom and a WC. From the entrance hall stairs rise to a mezzanine and bedroom 6 which could be used as a cinema room. Also from the hall, stairs lead down to the main bedroom accommodation which comprises four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, two of which are en-suite. These rooms are arranged around a garden room with French doors onto the terrace.

Outside

The property is approached over a tarmacadamed drive to a parking area to the rear of the house. Adjacent to the parking area is a triple garage with workshop area which measures 687 sq ft. The gardens and grounds extend to about 1.65 acres are predominately lawned. There is a paved terrace on the eastern side of the house, also accessed from the garden room.

Location

Landgate House is situated in the beautiful and popular village of Blockley. A thriving community, the village has a respected primary school, two pubs, village shop with Post Office and café, bowling green and a children's playground. Broadway Golf Club is nearby. The traditional market towns of Moreton-in-Marsh and Chipping Campden are both within easy reach, the former offering a rail service to Oxford and London, Paddington taking from 38 and 95 minutes respectively. The larger centres of Oxford, Cheltenham and Stratford-upon-Avon offer a diverse range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities.

There are restrictive covenants that affect the property. Further information is available from the agents.
