A beautiful detached family home with an excellent outbuilding and an aesthetically designed garden

With red brick and tile-hung elevations, Hatch House is a light-filled family home, which has been enhanced to offer a sympathetic blend of traditional features and contemporary styling. A spacious reception hall featuring a distinctive staircase with wood panelling provides access on one side to a drawing room and to the other into a formal dining room, both enjoying the additional illumination and views over the garden offered by large bay windows. Filled with natural light, courtesy of its triple aspect, vaulted ceiling with skylight windows and floor to ceiling windows on the westerly aspect, the kitchen/breakfast and garden room area creates a wonderful hub at the heart of this home. Fitted with modern, Shaker-style cabinetry topped with stone work tops, the kitchen features a Belfast sink and an island unit, which offers a subtle divide within the room. Ancillary space is provided by a utility room and a larder, along with two cloakrooms, completes the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor, there are four good sized bedrooms, which boast fabulous views over the surrounding countryside and with the principal room having its own en suite facility. There is also a separate family shower room.

The gardens at Hatch House provide an outdoor sanctuary with landscaping taking full advantage of the scenic riverside setting. Features include swathes of lawn, interspersed with mature shrubs and specimen trees, the former workings of the mill on an inlet of water with naturalistic plants, along with a gravel and rockery garden with pretty perennials. There are low level clipped hedges, divisions created by trellising and well-stocked flower beds, with a river bridge offering a charming and unique garden feature.

For those wishing to cultivate, there is an attractive greenhouse and additional outbuildings including an open store and a detached double garage.
