Location

The house is beautifully situated in the highly regarded prime location of Jericho - close to the extensive selection of independent shops; delicatessens; restaurants; artisan bakeries; cafes and schools.

Port Meadow is near the River Thames tributary famously winding through. Waterside walks include paths to Wolvercote; the Trout and Perch pubs; city centre; the main rail station - all are also a short bicycle ride along the tow path. The house is within the catchment area of the popular SS Philip and James Primary school. Summerfield, Dragon, D'Overbroecks and Oxford University Colleges are all within striking distance.

Oxford City centre 1 mile, Oxford railway station 0.8 miles by foot, Summertown 1.3 miles.

Postcode region: OX2

Outside

The rear courtyard has been attractively paved and the dining terrace features under tile heating. Pleached hornbeams and trellising enhance the outlook to the rear and the traditional Victorian garden walls complete the heritage.

There is new hand-laid Victorian style entrance tiling and new Oxford heritage iron gate and railings which received accolades from the Oxford Heritage Association.
