The property

Dating from the early 19th century, 14 Washington Street is an attractive Grade II listed townhouse, featuring a red brick and flint exterior. Offering nearly 1,300 sq ft of flexible, light-filled accommodation across four floors, it provides an elegant and characterful space for both family living and entertaining. Carefully balancing period charm with modern comfort, it showcases sash glazing, high-quality fixtures, and a neutral palette throughout.

The front door opens into a welcoming sitting room, where a gas log effect fire sits within a feature fireplace, framed by bespoke storage on either side. A passageway leads to the snug, which mirrors this cozy aesthetic with another fireplace and fitted cabinetry. Beyond, a 13-ft garden room offers decorative tiled flooring, a large bay with a reading nook, and side French doors that open onto the peaceful courtyard garden.

An inner hall off the snug leads to a staircase descending to the basement, where a front-aspect dining room with tiled flooring offers flexibility as an additional bedroom if required. The adjoining kitchen/breakfast room features a range of wall and base units, a breakfast bar, an Aga, and modern integrated appliances. A rear hall provides access to an en suite cloakroom and a staircase leading up to the courtyard garden.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom enjoys a front aspect and fitted storage, while the spacious rear-aspect family bathroom includes both a bath and a separate shower. On the second floor there is a final double bedroom benefitting from useful eaves storage and an en suite shower room.

Outside

The property is approached over a paved pedestrian path through a round-headed doorway with an original semi-circular fanlight with tracery. The part-walled courtyard garden to the rear, accessible from the garden room, is paved for ease of maintenance and is bordered by well-stocked raised flower and shrub beds; together with a pretty summer house.
