Whittonside Farm Estate occupies a beautiful and peaceful rural setting close to the village of Ramsbury, surrounded by stunning rolling countryside. Whittonside Farm house is a fine and valuably unlisted detached period house with seven bedrooms and plenty of attractive period details. It provides spacious accommodation across four levels, with exposed timber beams and original brick-built fireplaces with stunning views over the grounds. There are four comfortable, flexible reception rooms on the ground floor, including the drawing room with its brick-built fireplace and double doors leading to the garden room, which has a vaulted ceiling, sliding glass doors opening onto the garden and a former well, covered by a glass floor. There is also a formal dining room, and a snug in which to relax, which has an impressive brick-built inglenook fireplace with an original timber lintel, while the cellar has been converted into a cinema room and also features a wine cellar. Additionally on the ground floor, the kitchen and breakfast area has stripped wooden flooring, handcrafted wooden units a butler sink and an Aga, as well as space for a breakfast table. The adjoining utility room and larder provide further space for home storage and appliances.

The first floor has four bedrooms, including the generous principal bedroom with its en suite bathroom. Two of the first floor bedrooms have their own washbasins, while there is also a family bathroom. Three further bedrooms can be found on the second floor, each accessed via their own staircase, with two including washbasins. The second floor also has an attic room and the potential for further development, including installing a main staircase and a bathroom. Whittonside Farm house is now in need of some updating, offering great potential to redevelop/extend, subject to planning.

Whittonside Barn is a substantial, beautifully presented two-storey, three bedroom barn conversion, with its own private entrance and enclosed garden, including a summer house, large gravel parking area, single garage, and solar panels. The good sized garden at the rear of the barn features a south facing patio for al fresco dining, with a generous area of lawn, all bordered by established hedgerows, mature trees and shrubs. Internal features include an inglenook fireplace, together with oak windows, doors and floors throughout. The position and configuration of the barn makes this an ideal property for a holiday let, potentially offering an associated income, or ideal for multi-generational living.

Outside

Electric Tudor style wooden gates lead into a very private front courtyard, with a sweeping gravel drive, centred around a large picturesque pond with lawns. With plenty of parking space, the courtyard leads to an array of buildings, including the main farmhouse, stores, workshop, double garage, three stables with tack room, and a wonderful traditional wooden framed 41 foot 'entertainment barn'.

Within the gardens of the farmhouse there is a substantial patio which faces south east around to south west for outdoor living, with sizeable lawns, enclosed with trees, hedges and shrubs.

The paddocks envelope the buildings, which are ideal for horses or livestock, and include an open field shelter. The paddocks are bordered by woodlands and farmland, which are home to a large range of wildlife.
